

AWE

*Silver bells ring through the air
Golden bells sublime and fair
Sound within me, sound all around
Where is inside, where is outside to be found?*

*Nature gives us all its beauty
Do we still know how to receive?
To function is the latest duty.
How, Where, What, instantly fast—the new belief...
The eyes of children turn pale and dull
When the marvel's missing overall!*

*The awe, the dreaming, pictures of the future
it all first needs to be envisioned.
How amazing is this world that loves to nurture.
Wholeness and oneness, by all petitioned and by eternity commissioned.*
